SENATOR BOB ARCHULETA RECEIVES MAJOR ENDORSEMENT FROM THE LOS ANGELES COUNTY FEDERATION OF LABOR

Los Angeles, CA -- On Tuesday the Los Angeles County Federation of Labor, largest labor federation in California, endorsed Senator Bob Archuleta for re-election to the State Senate, in the newly drawn senate district 30.

The federation of Labor has over 300 affiliated union and labor organizations representing more than 800,000 members, met virtually to vote on candidates vying for offices across the County.

"I'm extremely honored to have received the support of our union brothers and sisters who have led the fight for better wages, better working conditions and fairer benefits of workers in this region," said Senator Archuleta, a former paratrooper of the 82nd Airborne. "Working alongside labor has been a highlight of my career and I look forward to this continued partnership, on behalf of working families,"

This incredible endorsement comes only a week after the Orange County Labor Federation also gave their endorsement of the Senator's campaign.

The newly drawn 30th Senate District includes new Cities to the Senator including Walnut, Diamond Bar and La Puente among others, where he has already received endorsements by local leaders, including over 130 local elected officials' from all across the 32nd and 30th Senate District, including Congresswomen Grace Napolitano, Judy Chu, and Lucille Roybal-Allard. Archuleta has also received endorsements from local Senate colleagues Lena Gonzalez and Maria Elena Durazo who have known and worked with the Senator for decades and trust his integrity, character and leadership.

Senator Archuleta is a former Obama Presidential Appointee and the current Chair of the Veterans and Military Commission and the Chair of the Subcommittee on Hydrogen and Environment. He was elected in 2018 by overwhelming support of the voters in the 32nd District which 75% of this district lies within the new 30th. He lives in Pico Rivera with his wife Rose of 17 years, has 5 adult children and 7 grandkids.
